

Our Story,

No doubt July 20, 2002, their wedding day, was in God's perfect plan for Samuel and LaBreeska Atkinson. Little did they know how many wonderful opportunities God had in store for them. Their desires to sing for the Lord and to be a witness to people have grown tremendously. After eight years of singing with the award winning Ricky Atkinson & Compassion, God has opened so many doors for their ministry. Their common goal is to see people get help and most of all see people saved. In January 2007, Samuel & LaBreeska felt the need to come off the road from a full time to a part time ministry. They felt their lives turning to a new direction. Collectively while with RAC, the couple had a part in such top 15 songs as "I'm Blessed", "Table of the King", "One More Time", "Something in the Water", "Jesus Can", "The Prodigals Father", "Only Gonna Never Die", and "Not What I Am." They have made appearances at the National Quartet Convention, Dollywood, Silver Dollar City, Gospel Music Television, INSP, and Fan Fair. During their time with RAC, Samuel and LaBreeska experienced the success of winning trio of the year, and being nominated for numerous awards.

More about Samuel.....

Samuel was born in Walterboro, SC on July 6, 1978. He comes from a rich Christian Heritage. Samuel's father has been pastoring and evangelizing all of his life. Growing up in church he always knew that God had something special in store for his life. Later in life he began singing with his brother and sister in church, and then learned how to play several instruments. Samuel is using his talents for the Lord in his local church, which his dad pastors. At the age of 20, Sam accepted the baritone position for Ricky Atkinson & Compassion. He then began writing songs, one of which was written with Ricky called "God Will Never Change."

Samuel was featured on the #4 song, “Table of the King.” He sang with Ricky Atkinson & Compassion for eight years. Samuel feels a strong desire to minister to all ages but especially young people.

More about LaBreeska.....

LaBreeska was born on June 18, 1982, and is from Waynesboro, MS. She hails from a strong singing and Christian background. Just like Samuel, LaBreeska was raised in church all of her life. Her dad, David Boaz, encouraged her music and singing at a young age. Her dad was an accomplished singer and bass guitarist. He later died when LaBreeska was nine. At the age of seventeen she began her solo ministry and then went on to acquire a degree in music. Later she met Samuel and after marriage began singing alto with Ricky Atkinson & Compassion. LaBreeska was featured on the # 5 song “I’m Blessed.” She is also involved in her home church where she leads the youth choir.
